Later it was ordered that the charges should be borne by the same Deptt. whether a prisoner was taken to give evidence or to answer a charge & that the expenditure of the 1st kind (charges for moving prisoners) should be debited to "Way charges of escort" & that of the 2nd kind should be drawn on ordinary t. a. bills.

3) In 1911 the D.G of Police pointed out that there was no provision in the M.S.R for giving 4 as per diem to constables as batta though the practice of giving them that amount was in vogue from a long time & recommended that the practice should be continued. But Govt declined to sanction this special rate of batta after carefully considering the question.

W
Pol 167-10-1

4) The D.G. now requests a revision of this order on the grounds that the duties of the escorting Policemen are more onerous than their ordinary Police duties, and that in Madras special rates are allowed in such cases. Some of the bills are of the year 1910

5) Submitted for order. It is a point for consideration whether the recommendation of the D.G for special batta should be given effect to retrospectively.

12) The rule referred to by the D.G of Police is apparently Rule 144 of the Madras Police orders in Vol III submitted herewith. Read by reading this rule with the Rule 546 and 539 in Vol I in which the duties of the escort the strength of the escort are mentioned, it appears that Rule 144 in Vol III refers to the escort referred to in Rule 546 of Vol I. The escort of prisoners only constables are to be detailed, (vide para 13) in rule 539) and the provision for H.C. in such cases of an Inspector, Sub Inspector will be meaningless. On the other hand, the provision seems to refer particularly to the escorting of prisoners referred to in Rule 546.

Mair.

With reference to Government Proceedings No.J 2528-9/Police.167-10-2 dated the 1st March 1912, regarding payment of escort bills, I have the honor to state that prior to December 1905, all escort bills were being paid by the Magistrates and Courts concerned on presentation of the bills by the Superintendent of Police.

2. In 1905, Government directed in Proceedings No.J.1755-66/Police 36-4 dated the 23rd December 1905, that whenever the Police escorted prisoners to and from Magistrate's Courts for giving evidence, the charges should be borne by the Police Department and not by the Judicial Department as was the case till then.

3. In the Proceedings of 1905, there being no provision for payment of charges in cases where prisoners were escorted by the Police from Jails, not for the purpose of giving evidence but for answering a charge, it was presumed the expenditure was a legitimate charge on the Judicial Department; but the Government decided in Proceedings No.J.3687-8/Police.198-09-2 dated the 6th January 1910, that these charges also should be borne by the Police Department.

4. It was also ordered in the same proceedings that the escort charges should be split up into two, the portion relating to the prisoners and that relating to Police escort, the former being charged to "way charges of escort" and the latter to "travelling allowance ". In these escort bills, the rates charged for the escorting policemen were six annas to a Duffedar and four annas to a constable, per diem, which were being admitted by the Courts prior to 1905 and also by the Comptroller since then till recently.

5. With the issue of the Proceedings of 6th June 1910, referred to in para 3 supra, a reference was made to Government in this office letter No.5292/474 dated the 9th February 1911, that there being no provision in the Mysore Service Regulations for granting such special rates of batta, orders may be passed allowing these rates as a special case, which however the Government declined to do.

6. I beg to submit that the duties of the escorting Policemen are not merely confined to their legitimate Police duties, but also to rendering innumerable other services, small and large, to the prisoners - e.g.catering and other duties of a similar nature. In consideration of such extra work and of the more responsible and arduous nature of guarding the prisoners, they are being granted the special rates of batta for a long series of years. I have also ascertained that in the Madras Presidency, the Police officers and constables performing such escort duties are being paid special rates - actual expenses not exceeding eight annas for a Head Constable and four annas for a Constable for every 10 miles.

7. I therefore request that Government may kindly be moved to continue these special rates of batta, as hitherto, to the Police officers and Constables on similar duty, in consideration of their having to attend to so many calls from the prisoners, while under escort.

8. For want of clear orders on the subject, 37 such bills amounting to Rs.285-10-0 are pending audit, which are herewith forwarded for favour of sanction and transmission to the Comptroller for audit.
